Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the distinguished gentleman from California [Mr. ROYCE], the chairman of our Subcommittee on Africa, for introducing this resolution and for his outstanding leadership on this very difficult issue. The purpose of this resolution is to highlight the significant efforts of former Secretary of State James Baker in advancing a peaceful solution to the question of Western Sahara. Due to the leadership by the gentleman from California Mr. ROYCE, this resolution has moved forward in a consensus manner. We have worked closely with both sides on the Western Sahara question and with Secretary Baker and all parties find that the resolution is agreeable.

Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, I urge our Members to support this excellent resolution.

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. Payne], a member of the Subcommittee on Africa.

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, let me first commend the gentleman from California [Mr. ROYCE], the chairman of the Subcommittee on Africa, and the gentleman from New Jersey [Mr. MENENDEZ], the ranking member, for the outstanding work that they have done on this resolution. The Western Sahara has been a point of contention for some time now. The final outcome for this former Spanish colony will be historic and a momentous occasion. It will set a precedent for many other issues of self-determination throughout the world, such as Cyprus and Northern Ireland. This is a major accomplishment. We should commend the former Secretary of State James Baker, the Polisario Front and representatives of Morocco for coming to the table to decide on a referendum on the future of this disputed territory. The referendum originally scheduled for January 1992 is to decide whether Western Sahara should be incorporated into Morocco or become an independent nation as many of the Sahrawi people have fought for for many years. I am glad to see the culmination of the identification process which first started in 1984. I also want to congratulate the Secretary-General of the United Nations Kofi Annan for his role in urging negotiations in this region. Let me say that I think that now the playing field has been leveled, where all will have access to the media, to the press, and that international observers will be able to participate in the proceedings. All of these very important issues have been worked out. This is a step in the right direction.

As we see democracy spreading throughout the continent of Africa, where only a few countries are left in dispute at this time, I think that it is good to see another nation coming to the front where the question which has long besieged them and has been a problem may be finally worked out. Once again I urge my colleagues to support this resolution.

Mr. ROYCE. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume. In closing, let me commend the gentleman from New Jersey ĬMr. MENENDEZ], the ranking member of the Subcommittee on Africa, who has worked with us on this resolution. We have worked together on several measures throughout the year. I would also like to commend Special Envoy James Baker for his work. Morocco is a longtime ally and the United States has been improving relations with Algeria, which supports the Polisario Front.

The issue of self-determination for Western Sahara poses a danger of instability for the northwest African region. The issue must be resolved so that the likelihood of long-term problems there is diminished. Peace in Western Sahara will allow for economic development and democratization in the region and could be a beneficial example for other nations in North Africa and the Middle East. That is the purpose of this resolution.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. MENENDEZ. Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to adopt the resolution, and I yield back the balance of my time

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. LAZIO of New York). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from California [Mr. ROYCE] that the House suspend the rules and agree to the resolution, House Resolution 245, as amended.

The question was taken; and (twothirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the resolution, as amended, was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.
